

Book Character Parade!

Thursday, October 31st

8:45 a.m.

The parade will begin promptly at 8:45 a.m. Parents will enjoy the parade from the bus ramp outside the cafeteria. Bring your own chair and enjoy the parade!

- ✓ Students may walk the parade if they have a copy of the book or a colored page of the book cover.
- ✓ No scary costumes will be allowed. Principal discretion is the final decision.
- ✓ Please no weapons, blood, witches, ghosts, etc. Parents please help your child select an appropriate costume so that they may join in the fun. If this is not for your child, we need audience members too!
- ✓ Please note: Sometimes the children get nervous and decide not to walk in the parade once it begins. This may happen to your child and we will not force them to walk. This is for fun!
- ✓ Also, the teachers pair up their classes. One teacher walks the parade and the other teacher stays back with the rest of the children to watch the parade.  Teachers will be carrying a sign to let you know which homeroom classes will be passing by.
